

Q&A

Your visit to The Hague in corona time

General rules

- Always keep 1.5 metres away from other people;
- Go elsewhere if it is too busy in one place: look for space;
- Wash your hands regularly;
- It is mandatory to wear a non-medical mouth mask in public transport;
- Buy your tickets in advance for museums, attractions, theatres and cinemas;
- Make a reservation at restaurants, cafes, beach bars and other food and beverage outlets.

More information check www.denhaag.nl or www.rijksoverheid.nl.

Can I visit The Hague for a day out?

- You are allowed to visit The Hague for a day trip;
- Keep a distance of 1.5 metres from other people and it is important to stay away from busy places;
- Prepare yourself for a day out to ensure that you can enjoy your visit.

How is The Hague best accessible?

- If possible, go out by bike or on foot;
- If you come by car, check in advance where you will park and whether this parking space or garage is open. Especially when the weather is fine, it can be busy with traffic towards the beach and the municipality of The Hague can decide to close parking spaces near the beach to prevent it from becoming too busy on the beach. Avoid traffic jams and save money by parking at a Park & Ride or Park & Bike: www.denhaag.nl/nl/parkeren/parkeren-in-de-stad/park-en-ride-terreinen-den-haag.htm;

- Only go by public transport if you have no other option, If you are to go by public transport, wearing a non-medical mask is compulsory. The timetable may have been adjusted due to the restrictions regarding the Corona virus. Before leaving, please check www.ns.nl for the train timetable or www.htm.nl for the tram and bus timetable;
- Visit The Hague by bike! Rent you're The Hague city bike on denhaag.com/en/bike-rental-du-nord-rijwielen.

I live abroad. Can I visit The Hague?

- Holidays to the Netherlands are again possible, but not for everyone;
- Check the website of the Dutch government (www.netherlandsandyou.nl/documents/frequently-asked-questions/qa-holidays-to-the-netherlands) before departure to see if you can travel to The Netherlands. Visitors must adhere to the applicable rules, such as keeping 1.5 metres away from each other and avoiding busy places;
- For the time being, it is compulsory to book your hotel, campsite or B&B in advance.

Before you visit The Hague from abroad, it is important to take the following steps:

- Are you ill? Then stay at home;
- Take a good look at the rules of the country you are in and whether you can already travel abroad;
- Check the website of the Dutch government to see whether it is permitted to visit The Netherlands from your country;
- If all this is possible: book one of the beautiful accommodations in The Hague. Check denhaag.com/nl/slapen-in-den-haag for inspiration.

Q&A

Your visit to The Hague in corona time

Can I go to the beach in Scheveningen or Kijkduin for a day?

- You can visit the beaches of Scheveningen and Kijkduin;
- It is still compulsory to keep a minimum distance of 1.5 metres from other people and to avoid busy places;
- If it is too busy on the beach or in a certain place? Then walk or cycle a bit further to a quieter part or come back another time;
- Take the bike or go for a walk if you live nearby the beach;
- To prevent traffic congestion around the beach, certain roads around the beach and the harbour may be closed;
- If you do come by car, consider using a Park & Ride or Park & Bike, which avoids traffic jams and saves money
Check: www.denhaag.nl/nl/parkeren/parkeren-in-de-stad/park-en-ride-terreinen-den-haag.htm everyone can keep a minimum distance of 1.5 metres;

- How many people can enter a museum at the same time depends on the size of the museum;
- Always visit the website of the museum to see how you can visit the museum.

Can I go to the cinema, theatre or concert hall in The Hague?

- Cinemas and cultural institutions such as theatres and concert halls are open;
- It is compulsory to book a ticket in advance;
- When you book the ticket, the staff will ask how you are doing, because those who are ill still have to stay at home;
- Always check the website of the cinema or cultural institution itself. Then you can immediately book a ticket there.

Can I eat or drink in The Hague?

- Restaurants and cafes are open;
- Terraces may be used again, but 1.5 metres must be kept between the seats;
- You must make a reservation in advance. The staff of the restaurant, cafe or beach tent will ask questions about your health, because those who are ill must stay at home. It is therefore not possible to walk in spontaneously.

Can I spend the night in a hotel or a campsite or holiday park in The Hague?

- Most of the hotels in The Hague are open as usual;
- Always check the hotel website itself to make sure it is open;
- Campsites and holiday parks are allowed to open the communal toilets and showers.

Can I visit museums in The Hague?

- The museums are open to the public;
- A ticket must be reserved for a specific time;
- The museums are allowed to enter visitors in a responsible manner and ensure that

Can I visit The Hague Market?

- The Hague Market is open in a smaller form on Monday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday from 9:00 to 17:00;
- Only a limited number of people can enter at the same time;
- Checks are made at the entrances;
- There are compulsory walking routes;
- It is mandatory to always keep 1.5 metres away from other people;

Q&A

Your visit to The Hague in corona time

- A visit to The Hague Market should not be seen as a pleasant outing at the moment and should only be used for shopping.

Can I have a barbecue in a park?

- Preparing meals in the open air, including barbecuing, has been prohibited in most parks.

Is public transport in The Hague?

- Avoid the public as much as possible during rush hour and give each other as much space as possible;
- It is mandatory to wear a non-medical mouth mask in public transport;
- An adapted timetable applies to some lines. Check www.ns.nl for the trains and www.htm.nl for buses and trams;
- Visit The Hague by bike! Rent you're The Hague city bike on denhaag.com/en/bike-rental-du-nord-rijwielen

I want to go to an event in The Hague. Will it go ahead?

- Check the event website if an event continues.

Are theme parks such as Drievliet, Madurodam and Duinrell open?

- Theme parks are open again;
- Always buy a ticket in advance;
- At all parks, tickets can be purchased via the park's website for visits on a specific day and at a specific time;
- Check the park website itself to find out what to expect.

Can I go walking, running or cycling in the dunes and parks?

- The parks and dune areas of The Hague are open to the public;
- Always keep a distance of at least 1.5 metres away from other people;
- To avoid crowds in parking spaces, people are asked to come by bicycle or on foot as much as possible;
- If it does get too busy, it can be decided to close the dune area to the public;
- In the dune areas, walk the marked hiking trails clockwise;
- Always take your own waste or throw it in the appropriate waste bins.

Is The Hague Info Store open for information about The Hague and fun Hague products?

- The Hague Info Store (THIS) on the Spui is open;
- Visitors are welcome from Monday to Saturday between 12:00 and 17:00 for advice on a visit to The Hague;
- Check denhaag.com/nl/welkom-bij-the-hague-info-store for more information.

Are the shops open in The Hague?

- Most shops in The Hague are open;
- Stores let in a limited number of customers at the same time;
- Always keep 1.5 metres away from other people;
- The Hague has a lot of shopping areas. It is often much quieter in the shopping streets surrounding the city centre.

Q&A

Your visit to The Hague
in corona time

Can I take my dog for a walk on the beach?

- Dogs are only allowed on special permitted beaches between 15th May and 1st October;
- Always keep 1.5 metres away from other people and avoid crowded places;
- Dogs are always allowed from the end of the parking area Zwarte Pad to the border of the municipality of Wassenaar;
- Dogs are allowed on the Zuiderstrand between 21:00 and 7:00. Dogs are always allowed from beach entrance 2 at the end of the parking lot at Machiel Vrijenhoeklaan to the border of the municipality of Westland;
- Dogs are also always allowed between beach entrance 9 (Kwartellaan) and 10 (Duivelandsestraat).

Are the public toilets at the beach open?

- Free-standing toilet blocks at beach tents for walkers, sun worshipers and other beachgoers;
- Restrooms within beach bars are only available to guests who have reserved.

◆ The City
The Beach
The Hague.